To Preserve Miss Winlocke's Voice.

For permitting her voice to be canned for shipment by the superintendent of Telharmonic Hall, Isabelle Winlocke will receive the tidy sum of $400.

Miss Winlocke sings the leading character role of Trigandra in "The Rose of the Alhambra," and possesses a mezzo soprano voice which is said to be exceedingly rich. At any rate, the management of the Telharmonic system likes it, and the sum above mentioned is paid for three songs, which later will be distributed by wire throughout the metropolis.
