Novelties at Telharmonic Hall.

At Telharmonic Hall, Thirty-ninth street and Broadway, the novelties for the week include the playing of a "silent" number, in which the audience hears only the clicking of keys, while another audience, at a distant hotel, is hearing the selection in full musical volume. Among the visitors to the hall were Gabrielowitz, Caruso, Nahan Franko, Charles Klein, Admiral Sigsbee, Mrs. F. G. Vanderbilt, Alexander Lambert and Guy Standing.
